Governor John S. Fine Thanks Princess LaRue Martin

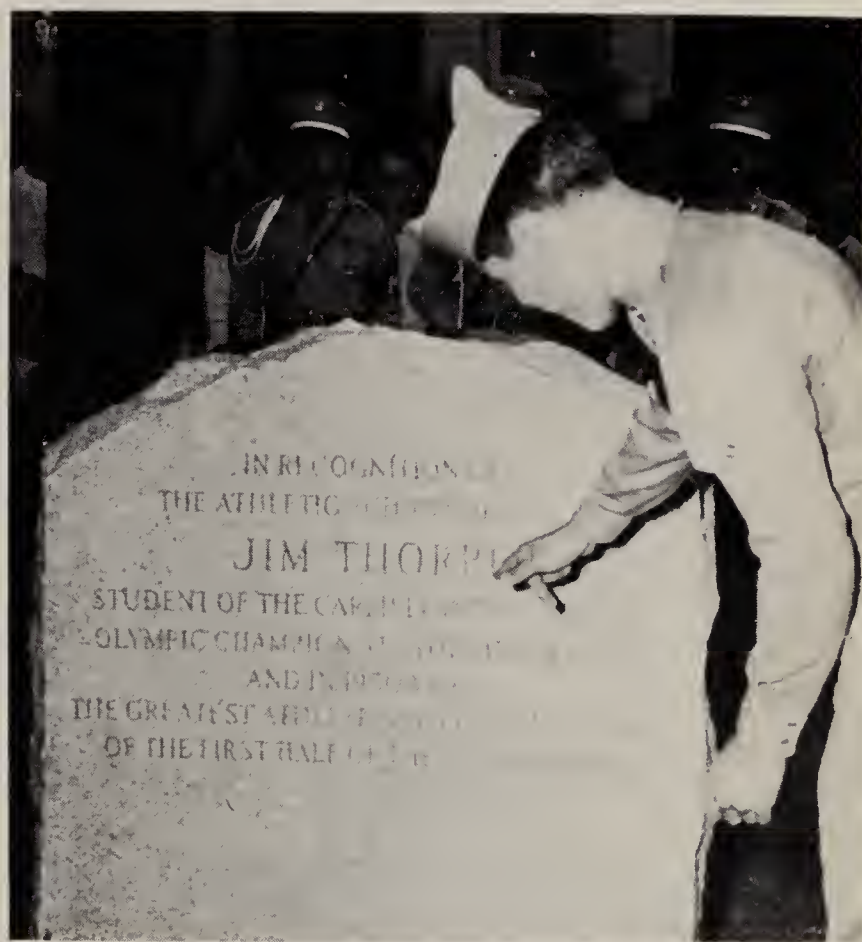

EARLY DAYS AT THE INDIAN SCHOOL

WELCOME TO CARLISLE

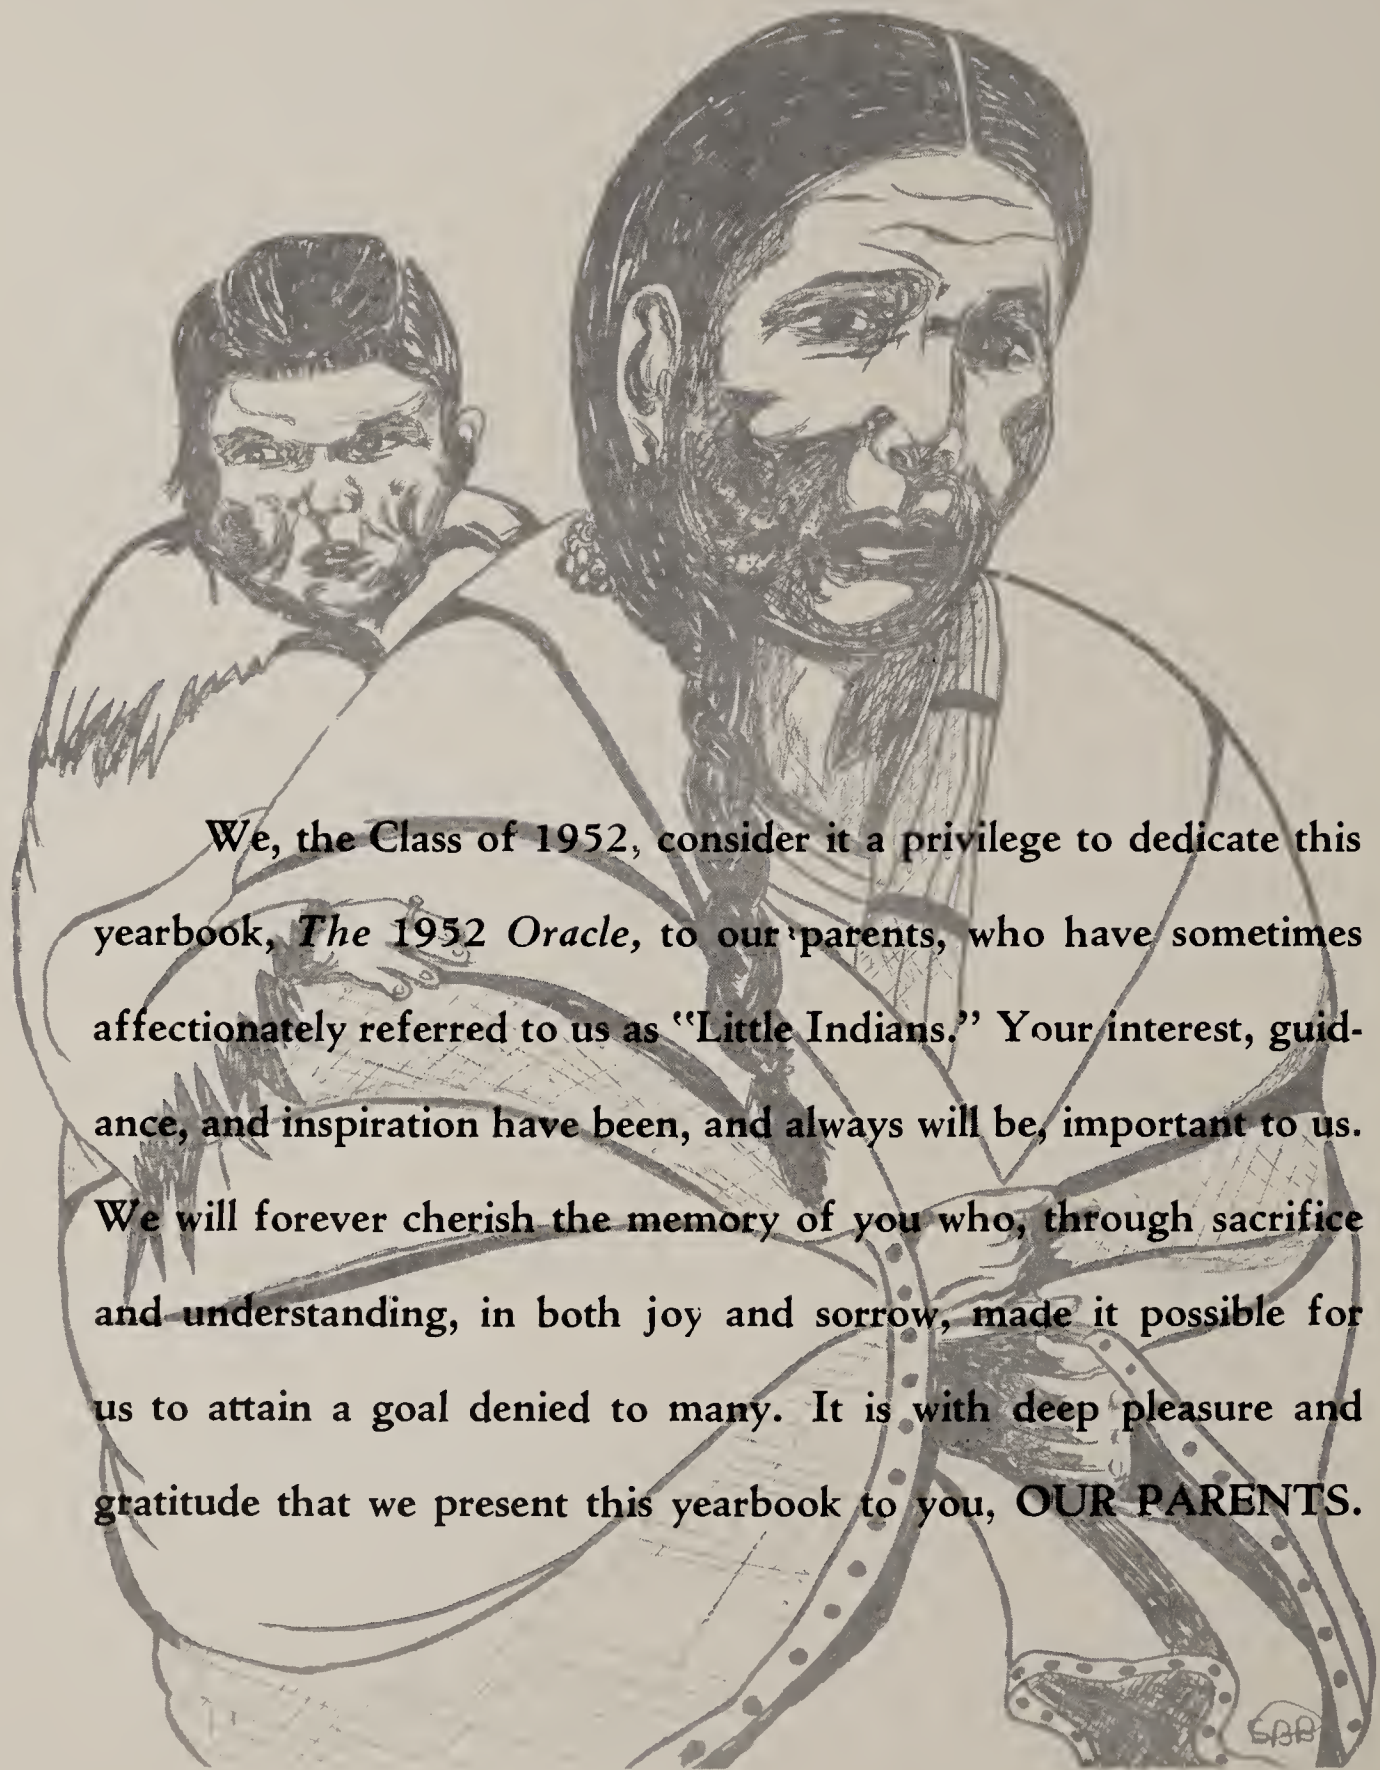

Indians have long been associated with Carlisle because of the Indian school for which Carlisle is known throughout the United States. Here Jim Thorpe, named the greatest athlete of this century, started his career. Although we now have no Indians in Carlisle, last summer in connection with the premier of the Thorpe movie, an Indian Princess visited us from Oklahoma City and here presented to the Governor of Pennsylvania, Governor John S. Fine, war bonnets of honor. Today, though museums contain many pictures of it, the Carlisle Indian School (1879-1918) is no more; yet we remember our debt to the First Americans, and have chosen an Indian Theme for our 1952 Oracle. In this book we invite you to visit our Carlisle High School and here to see its members. As we emulate the courage, skill, and physical strength of these Indian Americans, may we, too, grow to be good Americans, better equipped to meet life squarely and to face the future unafraid.

BRIG. GEN. TRUDEAU PRAISES THORPE'S PROWESS

We, the Class of 1952, consider it a privilege to dedicate this yearbook, The 1952 Oracle, to our parents, who have sometimes affectionately referred to us as "Little Indians." Your interest, guidance, and inspiration have been, and always will be, important to us. We will forever cherish the memory of you who, through sacrifice and understanding, in both joy and sorrow, made it possible for us to attain a goal denied to many. It is with deep pleasure and gratitude that we present this yearbook to you, OUR PARENTS.

Welcome To Our Parents
Who Have Shown Interest By Attending Open House

"Which way to the elevators?"

On November 5, 1951, many parents and friends visited C. H. S. at the annual Open House. Parents, following students' schedules, also had opportunity to confer with individual teachers. Members of the Hostess Club contributed much to the success of the evening by acting as guides, and by serving refreshments in the cafeteria.

No homework tonight!

All Sophomores united on March 21, to make their class party, "The Bunny Hop," a total success. The class, in a more serious vein, presented a picture to the school in memory of Romelda Lehman, a classmate who died of spinal meningitis.

TENTH GRADE—

Ninth Grade

The class of 1955 numbers 311. Officers were chosen on election day in November as a civics class project. When Charles Shaeffer, a classmate, died on November 9, the class presented to the school a painting to be hung in the library in his memory. The highlight of the year was the Holly Hop, held on December 7. During the next three years Carlisle High School's Class of 1955 hopes to grow "in wisdom and stature and favor with God and man."

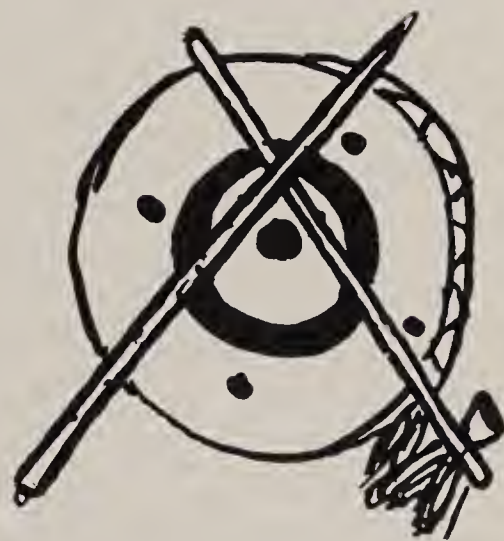

OFFICERS — MARY LOU BEITTEL (treasurer), NANCY WEBB (secretary), MISS COOK (adviser), LOWELL CAROTHERS (president), WILLIAM ROWE (vice-president).

Eighth Grade

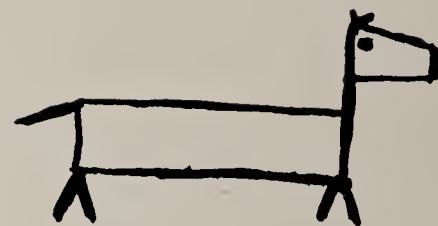

Although eighth grade does not function as an organized group, it participates in many activities of the high school; and within its ranks are many leaders of our junior high school and many active club members. Its contribution to the magazine drive sponsored by the Student Council amounted to $499.60.

Seventh Grade

Seventh Grade does not function as an organized group but rather as Home Room units. Much interest and enthusiasm is shown in school projects; such as, the Current Events Contest, the Magazine Drive, many Junior High Clubs, and, of course, Intramural Sports.

This was an important year for the Student Council and Student Cabinet. From the Harvest Ball and the very successful Magazine Drive came money for the Periscope and a new portable stage for the gym. In addition to these projects the Student Council also took charge of hall patrol elections, bulletin boards, the clean-up drive, and Christmas decorations. This was indeed a profitable and busy year.

Faithful to the Last Word

Staff members at the Reading P.S.P.A. Conference

Now what's wrong?

Oracle Staff

Since last year's ORACLE was awarded first class rating by both Pennsylvania School Press Association and Columbia University, the '52 Staff has worked hard to maintain this standard. The twenty members of the staff had a herculean task as they not only had to provide and type all copy, arrange for all photographs and drawings, but also had to earn the funds to finance the book. A sizable sum must be obtained, as the ORACLE is given to more than a thousand budget members at a loss of over a dollar on each book. Advertisers, friends who became patrons, candy sales at basketball games, and the annual skating party, provided the money.

Periscope

The Periscope, published bi-monthly by the Journalism class, brings to the student body the news in and about Carlisle High School. This newspaper recently won a first place rating in the Pennsylvania School Press Association, and several members of the staff took first prizes for individual articles.

Millikan Science Club

The Millikan Science Club holds monthly programs of scientific interest.

Library Club

The Library Club serves the school through its members and its over all program, promoting the cultural advancement of the school.

Budget Club

Doing all the bookkeeping necessary for our complicated Budget System is the contribution of this efficient club and its adviser, Mr. Lehman.

Debate Club

Last year, the Debate Club for the second time in a row took top honors in the Southern Pennsylvania District Forensic Contests and was also victorious in many debates with other schools. The club hopes to win further honors this year.

Seated: Walker Goodrich, BARBARA ADAMS (manager), Audrey Cramp, Mary Bostock, Kathy Rafferty. Standing: MISS MORGANTHALL (adviser), ROBERT FOSTER (president), MISS HOOVER (adviser). Other members: Ken Hankins, Katherine McNair, Mary Louise Miller, SYLVIA RAMBO (secretary).

Varsity Football

Under the able guidance of head coach Ken Millen and his aides, Eugene Evans, backfield coach, and a new line coach, Stanley Morgan, the Thundering herd had another winning season, compiling a 9-1-1 record. The only blemishes on this record were an early season reversal by Gettysburg, conference champ, while three regulars were benched because of sickness; and a tie, in the mud and rain, with Hanover. In the traditional tilt with the Wildcats from M-burg, the Herd stampeded over, through, and around the Cats for the highest score since the series was inaugurated, winning handily 38-0.

Fred McCoy, honorary captain and center of the all-star squad, Bob Lowry, tackle, and Pete Calaman, quarterback, were selected for the All-South Penn Conference team. Seldon Cohick made the second team; while John Spraglin, Dick Darr, and Dick Smith received honorable mention.

We have now reached the end of our trail. Just as the "Red Men" have ended their primitive way of living, we, of the class of '52, end our experience as school students. But, just as Indian stories and traditions are remembered, especially here in Carlisle with its rich Indian heritage; so we, too, shall have memories of our school career. Only yesterday we were seventh graders, looking up to the seniors and thinking "Just five more years!" Soon we were "Freshmen," enjoying the "Freshman Follies." Then as sophomores we began to participate in numerous activities: Dramatics, Choir, Band, Periscope Staff, and Sports. In 1950-51 we contributed many athletes to help win the 1950 Football and Track Conferences. We became members of the hall patrol. With "Cheaper by the Dozen" as our class play, and the Pennsylvania Dutch as the theme of the colorful Junior Prom, we ended our year as Juniors, proudly wearing our new class rings.

Finally we reached our goal, but, to our amazement, as Seniors we feel no different, and now sadly realize what school means to us. This year we have been busy having our class pictures taken, ordering name cards and announcements, and getting our Oracle ready for publication, along with studying, and writing our Senior and Lamberton Essays. Losing only one football game, crushing Mechanicsburg 38-0, and producing our class play, "All Through the Night," were high lights of the year.

The last of our activities included May Day, the Junior Prom, Baccalaureate, our ever-wonderful class ride, and at last — Commencement. For this important occasion we decorated the stage with green and gold, our class colors, and the red rose, our class flower.

Our school life is finished; but just as the Indians had to remake their lives in a new world, we, also, must go forward to a different life, putting into use all the things we learned during our school days. "Always upright, always true, That's the Class of '52" is our motto. We shall never forget. May this Oracle help each of you to remember both this school year and each of us who here reach the end of our school days.
